

Where to invest in Russia or abroad?

Where to invest in Russia or abroad This question often confronts any person wishing to invest their savings. Someone is not planning to withdraw money abroad, believing that it requires a very large amount. Someone thinks it is too dangerous or too complicated because you will have to invest in a foreign country. Others on the contrary try to quickly send everything abroad because I think that it is safer to keep the capital abroad. Another reason for the withdrawal of funds outside Russia can be believed that financial institutions in our country are underdeveloped. So where better to invest Before answering this question I propose to consider the pros and cons of which carries a investing in Russia and abroad. INVESTING IN RUSSIA PROS it requires a small initial amount To create your investment portfolio of Russian instruments with sums in the tens of hundreds of thousands of rubles. For that amount you can buy mutual funds of ETFs which are traded on the Moscow stock exchange of stocks or bonds. relatively simple procedure of investment To purchase units of the mutual Fund or to open an account with a Russian broker to purchase ETF shares or bonds simply. You should contact the office of the management company of the mutual Fund or financial institution that sells shares of mutual Funds or broker giving access to the Russian stock exchanges and to execute all required documents. Thus more and more brokers and management companies provide services for remote opening of accounts. Additionally, the communication with representatives of the management company or broker will be in Russian. Another issue is that it is important not to make a mistake or the choice of the mutual Fund ETF or other securities for the investment portfolio or the choice of broker for transactions on Russian exchanges. it is possible to make the portfolio both from Russian and from foreign assets To date, there are mutual Funds investing in foreign securities and in foreign stock funds bonds and real estate. Also on the Moscow exchange traded ETF investing in shares of companies of different countries of the world USA Germany UK Japan China Russia in us bonds and into gold. Thus, if desired, out of all these tools, you can create your investment portfolio is distributed over different countries and assets. no complications with tax issues In most cases, although not always with the investment of money in tools are available in our country, the Russian investor will not have to file a tax return and to calculate and pay personal income tax on profits. All this for the investor will make

Link to article:: Where to invest in Russia or abroad?